D) Communications

- Mass Youth & Leagues Committee
 - Mass Youth Soccer website is up to date for the spring season.
 - Waiver language on the Mass Youth website includes COVID language. Many towns/clubs are using this.
 - Decision to conduct MTOC, an alternative version, or no event will be made at the May 2nd Leagues Committee meeting.
 - US Soccer annual report was sent out
- Spring Season
 - Field Closure / Game Cancellation procedure
 - Please don't wait until 2 hours before your game to cancel. We need more lead time to let the other towns know and the refs.
 - Exec Board weekly decisions process
 - Grade 3/4 scores and standings- Scores still need to be reported
 - Differences between SportsPilot and Arbiter
- Registrar
 - Printed rosters must be in color at your game (2 copies)
 - Amanda will work with you to get your jersey number corrected, just let her know
 - Player Pass roster(s) must be signed by the primary team coach and handed to the refs with the official team roster
- Referees
 - Coverage: past & present (see the Additional Items email attachment)
 - Ref numbers are down to 111 from 141 from last year.
 - Of the 111 refs 80 are available. Some are held up because of cori/sori, some are busy and some because of covid reasons.
 - Coaches are abusing the young refs
 - There are too many yellow cards for the first week.
 - Presidents need to be notified about red cards.
- Risk Manager

- When you get notice of a positive test or close contact quarantine situation, you need to notify Nancy Anderton (risk.manager@southshoresoccer.com).
- Also follow the notification procedures on the SSSL/MYS COVID-19 page

E) Reports of Committees

- Sportsmanship
- Scholarship
 - Volunteers please send an email to Dana vice.president@southshoresoccer.com
